GENDER SENSITIZATION COMMITTEE
AGAINST SEXUAL HARASSMENT (GSCASH)

The GSCASH was constituted by JNU on the Supreme Court guidelines of Vishakha vs. State of Rajasthan case in 1997, Supreme Court laid down guidelines for the prevention and deterrence of sexual harassment at the workplace. Following the recommendation of the Supreme Court, the gender sensitization committee Against Sexual Harassment was constituted in 1999 by the Jawaharlal Nehru University, for implementing the guidelines.

The primary functions of GSCASH are, redressal of complaints of sexual harassment, through a formal process of screening of complaints and conducting enquiries. The committee tries to create awareness about the role gender plays in our lives, with an aim to address the issue of sexual harassment while safeguarding and expanding the culture of gender sensitivity, equality and tolerance on the campus.
